

Ng Peh Kuen

Coach

Profile

As a HR Manager, Ng has been in HR for 18 years to serve in different industries, including manufacturing, construction & development etc. in a SME, public listed and multi-national company. The company size she has served can be as large as 700 headcounts and as small as about 120 headcounts. Before she became a vimiCoach, she was one of the pioneer team plays the HR Manager role in a newly start-up Malaysia-based multinational corporation that is active in Electrical and Electronics manufacturing. Over the years in HR, she has involved in a full spectrum of HR Operations, Recruitment, Payroll and Employee Relations. Apart from the HR roles, she was also an AQMR and Lead Auditor for the ISO QMS and EMS while serving the companies.

Her decision to become a HR Coach was inspired by her spouse and friends surrounding whom also the SME owners. She observed there was no alignment between both parties of employer and employee expectation, further has created the limitation to the SME owners continue to expand their business further. It inspired her to join Vimicoach as she believes with her role is able to create values and support the SME Enterprise and align the relationship between both parties of employer and employee to achieve "Win-Win" eventually.
